Finding Transit Service in Your Community (page 1)
START WITH A TIMETABLE

You will need to have a timetable for the schedule of the bus or train line you take to work. You can obtain timetables by accessing the websites or information numbers listed at the end of this brochure for the appropriate carrier. Or you can pick up timetables at major stations or information centers. Here is a partial list:

NJ TRANSIT - Camden/Walter Rand Transportation Center, Penncross Transit Center, Trenton Transit Center, Atlantic City Bus & Rail Terminals

PATCO - All Stations

SEPTA - Information Center at 1234 Market Street, Jefferson Station, Suburban Station, 30th Street Station

AMTRAK - 30th Street Station

You can also get NJ TRANSIT southern New Jersey bus timetables and maps, PATCO and select NJ TRANSIT, SEPTA, & Amtrak rail timetables at many public locations and from the Regional Travel Information Center at:

READING A TIMETABLE – EASY AS 1 - 2 - 3

1. Choose your direction of travel and look at the section of the schedule for either weekdays (Monday thru Friday) or weekends (Saturday, Sunday and holidays).

2. Find the location you are starting from on the timetable. On bus timetables, the “time points” listed represent the major stops. Buses also stop at locations along the route that are between the time points. On train timetables, every station is listed, but trains will only stop at a station when a time is listed. If the space is blank, that particular train will not make that station stop.

3. Choose the start time of your trip. On NJ TRANSIT bus, River Line and PATCO timetables, read across. On the NJ TRANSIT, SEPTA and Amtrak train timetables, read down. Continue to your destination. The trip’s arrival time will be noted. Be sure to read any special symbols or footnotes! They give important information about your bus route or train line. Peak-hour trains are listed in the shaded areas of NJ TRANSIT and SEPTA timetables. Off-peak tickets are not valid on these trains.

TRAVELING BY BUS

In urban areas such as Camden, Philadelphia, Trenton and Atlantic City, bus stops are usually marked by bus stop signs and many stops (such as those along Market St. in Philadelphia) have bus shelters. Signs may list the route numbers of the buses stopping at that location. Be sure to check the route and destination of the bus you want to take on both the bus stop sign and on the bus.

In suburban and rural areas, all bus stops may not be marked. In some cases, you may be able to board a bus anywhere along the route where it is safe for the bus to stop. To board the bus, just signal the driver clearly with your hand on the bus approach.

When you board, tell the driver where you are going and deposit the required fare. Most local/city transit buses are exact fare only. The bus will be labeled “Exact Fare” on the outside next to the entrance door. The fare box will accept coins and $1.00 bills. Drivers do not have change.

BUS FARES

NJ TRANSIT bus fares are based on the number of zones traveled between your origin and destination. Additional zone charges may apply for longer trips. Most trips in southern New Jersey are four zones or less. If your trip requires a transfer to a second bus, purchase a transfer when you pay your fare on the first bus. Transfers are available for in-transit trips in varying rates for adults, seniors, children, and people with disabilities.

If you commute daily, you can save up to 30% over the regular one-way fare by purchasing a monthly NJ TRANSIT bus pass. You can use it to make unlimited trips on NJ TRANSIT bus routes for an entire calendar month for the number of zones indicated on the pass. There is an interstate pass for rides between New Jersey, NYC or Philadelphia and an intrastate pass for rides totally within New Jersey.

If you travel only a few days a week, a 10-trip ticket is available at a discount. It is good for ten one-way trips for 20 days from the date of purchase. There are no 10-trip discounts offered for those traveling through 2 zones or less.

Tired of standing in long lines? NJ TRANSIT now offers its commuters an easier way to get your monthly rail pass and bus or light rail pass. Sign up for the QUIK-TIX program and receive your monthly pass by mail. It is simple, easy, and convenient. For more information, go to NJTRANSIT.COM and highlight ‘ticket options’ on the main toolbar and then click on ‘QUIK-TIX,’ or simply call 1-866-QUIKTIX. A non-refundable $3 processing fee will be applied.
